EXAMPLE DELIVERABLE

Fort Belvoir fall youth-sports deadline

The kit turns a verified official listing into a legible deadline asset and channel-ready copy. Sponsor recognition would be separately labeled and approved in the signed scope; this sample names no sponsor and implies no relationship.

Official-source identity Bound to one canonical opportunity record	Three channel variants Facebook, Instagram, and X
Accessible by design Alt text included with the asset	Measured honestly Actual results only; no audience guarantee
✓ Square graphic and editable source
✓ Approved copy adapted to each channel
✓ Exact destination and campaign identity
✓ Required independence and no-endorsement language
✓ Publication held for same-day source and account checks

Commercial boundary: the fee buys defined production, licensed assets, and documented delivery—not member access, referrals, customer data, guaranteed reach, or military endorsement.
